Overview

Boruto: Naruto Next Generations Vol. 11: Stupid Old Man is the eleventh volume in the popular Boruto manga series. The volume follows Boruto Uzumaki, the son of Naruto Uzumaki, as he and his team continue their training to become ninja. This volume features a variety of exciting adventures, including a mission to protect a village from a group of bandits, a battle against a powerful enemy, and a heartwarming reunion with a beloved mentor.

Story

The volume opens with Boruto and his team being assigned a mission to protect the village of Seiiki from a group of bandits known as the Mujina Bandits. The bandits are led by Shojoji, a powerful ninja who has a personal grudge against Boruto's father, Naruto. Boruto and his team must use all of their skills to defeat the bandits and protect the village.

The next arc in the volume follows Boruto and his team as they investigate the disappearance of a group of shinobi. The investigation leads them to a secluded temple, where they encounter a powerful enemy known as Urashiki Otsutsuki. Urashiki is a member of the Otsutsuki clan, a powerful group of extraterrestrial beings who have been hunting Naruto and his friends for centuries. Boruto and his team must fight Urashiki to protect the world from his evil plans.

The volume concludes with a heartwarming reunion between Boruto and his mentor, Jiraiya. Jiraiya is a legendary ninja who has trained many of the greatest ninja in the world, including Boruto's father, Naruto. Jiraiya has been missing for several years, but he returns in this volume to help Bor
